

BOOKING CONDITIONS

Please read carefully – Trip Feast, a trading name of Travel The Unknown Ltd ('the Company') accepts bookings subject to the following conditions.

1. Your Holiday Contract

The contract is between the Company and the Client, being any person travelling or intending to travel on a tour operated by the Company. The contract, including all matters arising from it, is subject to English law and the exclusive jurisdiction of the English Courts.

2. Booking Procedure

For enquiries and reservations, you can call our office on +44 (0)20 7183 5153 (or +1 347 380 6959) between 10.00am and 5.00pm Monday to Friday (except public holidays) UK time. You can also email us at info@tripfeast.com.

If you are booking 10 weeks or more before departure we will ask for a deposit of up to 50% of the land tour price plus the full cost of any international flight. If you are booking within this 10 week period, full payment will be required. Any balance will also be due 10 weeks before your tour begins.

3. Tour Prices

3.1 Prices are per person and are based on two persons sharing a twin room. Solo travellers are accepted for travel on the basis that they agree to share all accommodation with another traveller of the same sex. On some tours solo travellers may request sole-occupancy accommodation at the time of booking. A supplement will be payable as advised and added to the cost of your holiday.

3.2 Kindly note that double bedrooms cannot be guaranteed, although requests will be noted at the time of booking. Furthermore, some hotels have several different room types. We regret that we are unable to pre-allocate a particular room type and in order that we accommodate the entire group, some clients may be given a superior room type without additional charge. In such cases this will always be done in the fairest way possible. We thank you in advance for your understanding.

3.3 Note: all tour prices are subject to change due to changes in domestic and international flight prices, as well as currency fluctuations. At the same time we will offer you the opportunity to pay in full for your international flights. By doing so we can guarantee that you will be protected from any fare increases later imposed by the airlines. It should be noted that airlines frequently change their prices and apply fuel surcharges, which are beyond our control.

Unless otherwise advised payments for flights are non-refundable and dates of travel will be fixed and non-changeable. It is essential that travel insurance is taken at the time of booking to cover possible cancellation.

Please check website for most up-to-date prices.

4. Group Size

Unless otherwise stated our tours are based on a minimum of 2-4 clients and a maximum of 12. In the event that we are unable to operate the tour due to insufficient booking numbers, you will be advised at the earliest opportunity and always no less than 1 month before departure. At that time you will be offered the following options:

- 4.1 Travel as planned, but at an additional supplement, payable per person. The cost of this supplement will vary depending on the itinerary and number of confirmed clients.
- 4.2 The same tour but for a different date.
- 4.3 Alternatively a different tour, for another destination and/or date (a surcharge or partial refund may apply).
- 4.4 A full refund of all monies paid to the Company.

5. Price Information

The prices displayed on our websites and in our marketing information, are correct at the time of publishing and are subject to change.

6. Passports, Visas and Health Matters

Medical vaccinations, passports and visas are entirely your responsibility and must be arranged prior to departure. We can take no responsibility for cancellation of your trip in the event that you are not allowed to fly, or continue your tour. If you are unable to travel due to not being able to obtain (or not having) the appropriate visa we reserve the right to retain the cost of the trip.

If we are arranging your visa for an administration fee and this is refused, the administration fee will be non-refundable.

7. Alterations by You

Once we have agreed a tour and itinerary with you and issued confirmation, should you wish to change your arrangements we reserve the right to impose an amendment fee of £75 per booking. For alterations within 10 weeks of departure Cancellation Charges may apply.

8. Alteration By Us

From time to time it may be necessary or advisable to alter the arrangements for your holiday. We reserve the right to make such alterations to any of the arrangements, as we consider necessary or advisable. Where such alterations are material we will inform you as soon as possible and discuss any options that may be available.

No compensation will be paid at anytime under circumstances caused by war or threat of war, civil strife, industrial dispute, strikes, terrorist activity, accident, natural or nuclear disaster, fire, airline failure, closure of airports, adverse weather conditions, or any other force majeure.

A published itinerary constitutes only an indication of what the tour is planned to accomplish and is not to constitute a contractual obligation on part of the Company.

9. Cancellation By You

Should you wish to cancel your holiday, you must notify us as soon as possible. Please advise the reason for cancellation as you may be covered by your insurance policy. In the event of cancellation, all flight costs will be forfeited. In certain instances, some flight costs may be recoverable by you. The following cancellation charges apply:

Over 70 days	Deposit
31 – 70 days	50% of total tour price
11 – 30 days	90% of total tour price
0 – 10 days	100% of total tour price

10. Cancellation By Us

We will not cancel your holiday other than for the reasons shown in these conditions under 'Group Size' and for force majeure or the client's failure to pay the final invoice. We will return promptly all monies paid as shown on the account except in the latter instance.

11. Foreign and Commonwealth Office Advice

11.1 The Client acknowledges that they are responsible to make themselves aware through Foreign Office advice, State Department warnings and other sources available to them on regard to the safety of the countries and areas in which they will be travelling and to make their decisions accordingly.

11.2 Whilst we will do our best to inform clients of relevant changes to FCO Travel Advice (www.fco.gov.uk), it is up to the Client and not the Company to know what the FCO travel advice to a certain country, or region of a country, is and to be adequately insured to travel there. The company accepts no liability if the Client a) chooses to cancel a booking because of FCO advice or b) is not adequately insured to travel. The Company will not normally cancel a trip simply because the FCO advise against travel.

12. Our Responsibility for your Holiday

12.1 Your booking is accepted on the understanding that you realise the potential risks and hazards that can be involved in adventure travel of this kind, including injury, loss or damage to property, discomfort and inconvenience. We will only accept your booking on the understanding that you realise the safety facilities in the developing world - in the vehicles, on the roads and at the tourist sights - often do not match ours in the west.

12.2 Where the client does not suffer personal injury, the Company accepts liability should any part of the tour arrangements booked with the Company not be supplied as described in the itinerary. However, we do not accept liability for compensation should there be no fault on the part of the Company or its suppliers and the reason for the failure in the tour arrangements was the client's fault, the actions of someone unconnected with the tour arrangements or could not have been foreseen or avoided by the Company or its suppliers even if due care had been exercised.

12.3 Where the client does suffer personal injury or death as a result of an activity forming part of the tour arrangements booked with the Company, the same rules shall apply.

12.4 Our responsibility does not start until you meet the group at the designated start point overseas; usually the airport in the city at the start of the trip. We are not responsible for any additional expenses incurred by you in getting to the meeting point.

13. Claims and Complaints

If a Client has a complaint against the Company the Client must first inform the tour guide or company representative whilst on the tour in order that the guide/representative can attempt to rectify the matter. If satisfaction is still not reached through these means then any further complaint must be put in writing to the Company within 30 days of the end of the tour. The Company will not accept any liability for claims received after the period.

14. Insurance

Travel insurance is a mandatory requirement for all of our tours. We strongly recommend that you take out your own insurance once you have paid your deposit.

Adequate insurance must be in place before participating in a tour, which must include cover for medical expenses and repatriation costs should you become too ill to continue your trip.

Proof of relevant travel insurance must be shown before departure.

15. Financial Protection

15.1 We are licensed by the Civil Aviation Authority and hold an ATOL (9854). This ensures that in the event of our failure your money will be protected. When you buy an ATOL protected flight or flight-inclusive holiday from us you will receive an ATOL Certificate. This lists what is financially protected, where you can get information on what this means for you and who to contact if things go wrong.

We, or the suppliers identified on your ATOL Certificate, will provide you with the services listed on the ATOL Certificate (or a suitable alternative). In some cases, where neither we nor the supplier are able to do so for reasons of insolvency, an alternative ATOL holder may provide you with the services you have bought or a suitable alternative (at no extra cost to you). You agree to accept that in those circumstances the alternative ATOL holder will perform those obligations and you agree to pay any money outstanding to be paid by you under your contract to that alternative ATOL holder. However, you also agree that in some cases it will not be possible to appoint an alternative ATOL holder, in which case you will be entitled to make a claim under the ATOL scheme (or your credit card issuer where applicable).

If we, or the suppliers identified on your ATOL certificate, are unable to provide the services listed (or a suitable alternative, through an alternative ATOL holder or otherwise) for reasons of insolvency, the Trustees of the Air Travel Trust may make a payment to (or confer a benefit on) you under the ATOL scheme. You agree that in return for such a payment or benefit you assign absolutely to those Trustees any claims which you have or may have arising out of or relating to the non-provision of the services, including any claim against us, the travel agent (or your credit card issuer where applicable). You also agree that any such claims may be re-assigned to another body, if that other body has paid sums you have claimed under the ATOL scheme.

For further information, visit ATOL website at www.atol.org.uk.

15.2 We are also insured by IPP Ltd for tour packages that DO NOT include flights.

In accordance with "The Package Travel, Package Holidays and Package Tours Regulations 1992" all passengers booking with Travel The Unknown Ltd. are fully protected for the initial deposit and subsequently the balance of all monies paid to us, including repatriation if required, arising from cancellation or curtailment of your travel arrangements due to the insolvency of Travel The Unknown Ltd. There is no requirement for Financial Protection of day trips, and none is provided.

Consumer aware: Your booking is insured by IPP Ltd and its panel of insurers. - This insurance is only valid for passengers who book and pay directly with/to Travel The Unknown Ltd. If you have booked and/or paid direct to a Travel Agent for a holiday with Travel The Unknown Ltd. please request proof of how the booking is secured as this will not be covered by IPP Ltd in this instance. This Insurance has been arranged by International Passenger Protection Limited and underwritten by certain underwriters at Lloyd's. For further information please go to www.ipplondon.co.uk.

CLAIMS PROCEDURE: Download Claims Form from www.ipplondon.co.uk.

Any occurrence which may give rise to a claim should be advised within 14 days to:

International Passenger Protection Limited	Tel: +44 (0)20 8776 3752
Claims Office	Fax: +44 (0)20 8776 3751
IPP House
22-26 Station Road
West Wickham
Kent
BR4 0PR

In order to deal promptly with any claim hereunder it is essential that you retain all bills, receipts and other documents relating to your travel arrangements. Claim forms must be submitted within six months of date of insolvency. IPP cannot consider or pay claims received after this date.

16. Payment for your Flight

The payments you make for your flight are held by us on behalf of the scheduled airline who is supplying your flight, until the date we pass the money to that airline.

17. Most recent booking conditions

Please check www.tripfeast.com/booking_conditions.pdf at the time of booking for the most recent version of our booking conditions. The booking conditions at this location will supersede any previous versions of this document.
